This privacy notice describes what information (your ‘personal data’) we collect about you, the purposes for which we collect it and how we will handle and use it.

For the purposes of data protection law, we are considered as the ‘controller’ of the personal data we collect and hold about you and we are therefore responsible for it.

Our Legal Services Manager (Caroline Sanderson) is our Data Protection Officer and she is the person responsible for matters relating to the protection of personal data. She can be contacted at the address above or by email (dataprotection@baptist.org.uk) or phone 01235 517700.

We are registered with the Information Commissioner’s Office (“ICO”) with registration number Z5717589.

1. INTRODUCTION

We hold and process various categories of personal information for a number of reasons. We collect this data either from you or from third parties who provide it to us.

2. INFORMATION ABOUT YOU

We may collect information about you in the following ways:

2.1 Information which you give us

We collect information about you when you fill in one of our forms and when you communicate with us face to face or in writing, by email, phone or text. This can include (but is not limited to) your name, address, email address, phone number(s), the roles you hold within your church and your bank details.

2.2 Information we collect about you

Normally we will only process the information which you have provided us directly. We may, however, obtain additional information about you from statutory bodies, other third parties or anyone reporting a safeguarding concern. In certain circumstances, this may include special category and criminal convictions etc data, where the lawful processing conditions (described below) are met.

3. WHY WE COLLECT AND PROCESS THIS INFORMATION

In this section we list the different purposes for which we collect and use your personal information, as well as the legal grounds under the Data Protection Act 2018 (DPA) and the Retained General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR) on which we rely to justify such data processing.

5. WHERE WE KEEP YOUR PERSONAL DATA

All your personal information covered by this policy will be stored in the UK. We will not transfer your information outside the United Kingdom unless we are permitted to do so by law and we will inform you about such transfer before it is done.

6. RETENTION OF DATA

We will keep the personal information covered by this notice for the periods of time specified in our Data Retention Schedule and at the end of the applicable retention periods we will safely and securely delete it.

7. YOUR RIGHTS IN RELATION TO YOUR DATA

You have a number of rights under data protection law. These include:

- The right to access your personal data and to obtain certain information about it;
- The right to rectify the data if it is inaccurate;

- In some circumstances, such as when the data is no longer required or if the use of the data has no legal justification, the right to have that data erased;
- In limited circumstances, the right to object to our handling of the data;
- In limited circumstances, the right to restrict the handling of your data;

More details about how these rights apply can be found in our Data Protection Policy which can be accessed from www.baptist.org.uk/GDPR. You can exercise your rights or obtain more information about them by contacting our Data Protection Officer by email: dataprotection@baptist.org.uk or ring 01235 517700.

8. COMPLAINTS TO THE INFORMATION COMMISSIONER

You have a right to complain to the Information Commissioner's Officer (ICO) about the way in which we collect and handle your personal data. Complaints to the ICO can be made on the ICO's website <https://ico.org.uk/>.
